IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
CRIMINAL APPELLATE JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL WRIT PETITION NO. 3087 OF 2005

Mr.Parmanand H. Behra ...Petitioner.
V/s.
The Commissioner of Police, Mumbai
& Anr. ...Respondents.

Shri M.K.Kocharekar, adv. for the Petitioner.
Shri D.S.Hingorani, A.P.P.for the State.

CORAM: R.S.Mohite, J.
DATE : 24th January, 2006.

P.C.:

1. Heard the learned advocate for the Petitioner and the learned A.P.P. for the State. Rule. By consent, rule is heard forthwith. The Petitioner has prayed that they may be allowed to conduct their club known as 'Raj Social Club' situated at Room No.105, Building No.11-A, Bharat Nagar, Worli as police have given oral threat to stop the members of the club from carrying out lawful activities.

2. The learned A.P.P. states that the police authorities have not passed any order, oral or written whereby the lawful activities of the club have been restrained. In view of the statement made by the A.P.P., it is directed that the police should not interfere with the activities of the club. It is clarified that this order will not come in the way of police authorities from taking action against the gambling or any other unlawful activities prohibited under the Bombay Police Act carrying on in the premises of Petitioner’s club. If police find that any such unlawful activities are being carrying on in Petitioner’s club, then it will be open for the police authorities to take action.

3. Rule is made absolute in the above terms. The Petition stands disposed off.
